- Proportional salary deduction
- Written warning
- Disciplinary action as per Labour Act

Absence for 3 consecutive days without notice may lead to disciplinary inquiry.

9.9 Leave Records

The Company shall maintain official leave records in accordance with statutory requirements.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Employee shall maintain strict confidentiality regarding:

- Institutional agreements
- Financial information
- Client data
- Internal systems and software
- Business strategies
- Staff information

This obligation survives termination.

The Employee agrees to maintain professional discretion regarding compensation details.

11. NON-DISPARAGEMENT

11.1 The Employee shall not, during the course of employment or at any time after termination of employment, make, publish, or communicate any statement (whether verbal, written, electronic, online, or through social media) that is false, misleading, defamatory, or reasonably likely to harm the reputation, goodwill, or business interests of the Company, its directors, employees, agents, institutional partners, or associated entities.

11.2 The Employee shall not permit or authorize any third party to make such statements on their behalf.

11.3 Nothing in this clause shall prevent the Employee from:

(a) making disclosures required by law;
(b) providing truthful information in legal proceedings;
(c) exercising statutory rights under the Labour Act 2017 of Nepal.

11.4 Any breach of this clause may result in disciplinary action (during employment) or legal proceedings for damages (after termination), in accordance with applicable law.

12. ALLOWANCES & BENEFITS

12.1 Dashain Allowance

12.1.1 Employees who have completed one (1) full year of continuous service with the Company shall be eligible for Dashain Allowance.

12.1.2 The Dashain Allowance shall be equivalent to 50% (half) of one month's basic salary, unless otherwise revised by Company policy.

12.1.3 Employees who have not completed one year of service shall not be eligible for Dashain Allowance.

12.1.4 The allowance shall be paid prior to Dashain festival as determined by the Company.

12.2 Performance-Based Incentives (If Applicable)

12.2.1 The Employee may be eligible for performance-based incentives, bonuses, or rewards based on achievement of approved KPIs.

12.2.2 Incentive eligibility, structure, and amount shall be determined solely at the discretion of the Company.

12.2.3 Incentives are not guaranteed and shall not form part of the fixed salary.

12.3 Other Allowances (If Applicable)

12.3.1 The Company may provide additional allowances such as travel, communication, or representation allowance where required for official duties.

12.3.2 Such allowances shall be governed by Company policy and may be revised or withdrawn at any time.

13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

All documents, strategies, systems, and materials developed during employment shall remain exclusive property of the Company.

14. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The Employee shall not engage in any competing business during employment.

15. NON-SOLICITATION

During employment and for 12 months after termination, the Employee shall not solicit or recruit Company employees.

16. POST-EMPLOYMENT PROTECTION OF BUSINESS INTERESTS

16.1 The Employee acknowledges that during the course of employment she will have access to confidential information, institutional agreements, commission structures, agent databases, compliance systems, operational strategies, and business planning materials of the Company.

16.2 For a period of twelve (12) months following termination of employment for any reason, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) solicit, approach, induce, or attempt to divert any institutional partner, recruitment agent, or business associate of the Company with whom the Employee had direct or material dealings during the last twelve (12) months of employment;

(b) encourage or induce any such institutional partner or agent to reduce, terminate, or alter their business relationship with the Company;

(c) use or disclose confidential institutional agreements, commission models, agent performance data, compliance processes, or internal systems for the benefit of any competing business or third party.

16.3 Nothing in this clause prevents the Employee from accepting employment with another organisation, provided that the Employee complies strictly with the confidentiality and non-solicitation obligations under this Agreement.

16.4 The parties agree that the restrictions contained in this clause are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of the Company.

17. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

In case of misconduct, the Company shall:

1. Issue written warning or show cause notice.
2. Provide opportunity for explanation.
3. Conduct internal review.
4. Take appropriate action in accordance with Labour Act 2017.

18. TERMINATION

18.1 Termination by Either Party

After probation, either party may terminate employment by providing one month written notice or salary in lieu.

18.2 Immediate Termination Without Notice

The Company may terminate employment without notice for serious misconduct including:

- Fraud or dishonesty
- Criminal conviction
- Gross negligence
- Harassment or violence
- Substance abuse at workplace
- Serious policy violation

Such termination shall follow due disciplinary procedure.

19. CLEARANCE & HANDOVER

Upon termination, the Employee must:

- Complete handover of duties
- Return all Company property
- Sign clearance forms
- Delete confidential data

Final settlement shall be processed after clearance.

20. RELIEF FROM DUTIES

20.1 During the Employee's employment, including during any notice period (whether notice is given by the Employee or the Company), the Company may, at its discretion, require the Employee to:

(a) cease performing some or all of their employment duties;
(b) perform alternative duties reasonably consistent with their role;
(c) work from an alternative location, including remote work;
(d) not attend the Company's premises or any premises of clients or associated entities;
(e) refrain from accessing the Company's systems, databases, or confidential information;
(f) refrain from contacting clients, suppliers, agents, employees, or institutional partners of the Company;
(g) immediately return all Company property, documents, devices, and materials.

20.2 During any period in which the Employee is relieved from duties under this clause, the Company shall continue to pay the Employee's salary and statutory entitlements unless otherwise permitted under applicable law.

20.3 The Company may exercise this right where it reasonably considers it necessary to:

(a) protect confidential information or trade secrets;
(b) safeguard business interests or institutional relationships;
(c) conduct an internal investigation;
(d) manage compliance risks;
(e) ensure workplace health and safety.

20.4 Nothing in this clause limits the Company's right to take disciplinary action in accordance with the Labour Act 2017 of Nepal.

21. REDUNDANCY

If the Employee's position becomes redundant due to restructuring, operational changes, technological advancement, financial constraints, business reorganization, or closure of business activities, the Company may terminate the Employee's employment in accordance with the Labour Act 2017 of Nepal.

In such circumstances, the Employee shall be entitled only to the statutory payments and benefits required under applicable law. No additional compensation shall be payable unless otherwise determined by the Company at its sole discretion.

22. ASSIGNMENT

22.1 The Employee shall not assign, transfer, delegate, or otherwise dispose of any rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Company.

22.2 The Company may assign, transfer, or novate its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any successor, affiliate, related entity, purchaser, or restructured business entity, provided that such assignment does not adversely affect the Employee's statutory rights under the laws of Nepal.

22.3 Any permitted assignment by the Company shall not break continuity of service of the Employee.

23. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Any employment-related dispute shall first be addressed internally through HR and Management.

If unresolved, matters shall be governed under Nepal Labour Act 2017.

24. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Government of Nepal.

25. VARIATION OF TERMS

The Company may reasonably vary the Employee's duties, responsibilities, reporting structure, or workplace policies in accordance with business requirements, provided that such variation does not substantially reduce the Employee's salary, designation, or statutory rights.

Any significant amendment to the core terms of this Agreement shall be made in writing and signed by both parties.

26. SEVERABILITY

If any provision is found invalid, the remainder shall remain enforceable.

27. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

27.1 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Company and the Employee in relation to the Employee's employment and supersedes all prior discussions, negotiations, representations, understandings, or agreements (whether written or oral) relating to the subject matter.

27.2 The Employee acknowledges that she has not relied upon any statement, promise, or representation not expressly set out in this Agreement.

27.3 Any variation to this Agreement shall be valid only if made in writing and signed by both parties.

28. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Employee confirms that:

28.1 She has carefully read and fully understood the contents of this Agreement;

28.2 She has had the opportunity to seek independent advice if desired;

28.3 She voluntarily agrees to be bound by all terms and conditions of this Agreement without coercion, misrepresentation, or undue influence;

28.4 She has received a signed copy of this Agreement.
